About the trip

Seven days in Jordan, from Amman to Petra, with Jerash, the Dead Sea and the Wadi Rum desert along the way. A Spanish-speaking local guide, a 4x4 jeep ride and six dinners are included.

What you will experience

- Amman with the Citadel and the Roman Theater, and the Greco-Roman city of Jerash, with Ajloun Castle
- Desert castles of Amra, Al-Kharanah and Azraq, and free time to swim in the Dead Sea
- Madaba mosaic, Mount Nebo with a view of the Jordan Valley, and the Crusader fortress of Karak or Shobak
- Full day in Petra, from the Siq canyon to the Treasury (Al-Khazneh), with the royal tombs and the Colonnaded Street
- Little Petra, a former Nabataean caravan stop
- Jeep 4x4 ride of about 2 hours through the Wadi Rum desert, with a panoramic view of Aqaba

Day by day

1

DAY 1

AMMAN

Arrival in Amman, the capital of Jordan. Transfer to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

AMMAN-JERASH-AJLOUN-AMMAN (175 KM)

Breakfast. Panoramic tour of Amman, the new and the old parts, the latter known as Philadelphia: drive through the modern area and arrival in the city center, with a view from the Citadel. Continuation to the Roman Theater; then departure to the traditional markets (souqs), churches and mosques, such as King Abdullah's Blue Mosque, near the parliament, plus Abdali Boulevard and the new area with its residential neighborhoods. Departure for Jerash, one of the most complete and best-preserved Greco-Roman cities of the Roman Empire, known as the Pompeii of the East, a great example of Roman urbanization. A journey through time along its streets, theaters, temples and squares, among which the great colonnade, the triumphal arch, the oval plaza and the temples of Zeus and Artemis stand out. Continuation to Ajloun Castle, on top of the mountain, with a beautiful view. The fortress was built by one of Saladin's generals in 1185 AD, in the Ayyubid period, to control the iron mines of the region, and is a perfect example of Islamic architecture, since it was rebuilt in the 8th century by the Mamluks. Ajloun Castle dominated the three main routes leading to the Jordan Valley and protected the trade routes between Jordan and Syria, which made it a strategic defensive point in the Ayyubid period. Return to Amman. Dinner and overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

AMMAN-DESERT CASTLES-DEAD SEA-AMMAN (275 KM)

Breakfast. Departure east to visit the Islamic castles, built between the 7th and 8th centuries during the Umayyad dynasty. Visit to Qusayr Amra, a former hunting pavilion with frescoes unique in the Islamic world, to Qasr Al-Kharanah, a former caravanserai, and to the Umayyad Roman fort of Azraq, built in black volcanic stone. Descent to the lowest point on Earth, the Dead Sea, and to the Moab desert, the first natural spa in the world. Free time for a swim in its salty, therapeutic waters and to use the private facilities: beach and pool. Return to Amman. Dinner and overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

AMMAN-MADABA-MOUNT NEBO-KARAK OR SHOBAK-PETRA (325 KM)

Breakfast. Departure for Madaba, the "City of Mosaics", where you visit St. George's Church, home to the map of the Holy Land made in the year 571 AD. Continuation to Mount Nebo, known as the tomb of Moses and from whose summit you can see a magnificent panorama of the Jordan Valley. Visit to the church and departure along the King's Highway, known as the Silk Road for the trade in silk, spices and perfumes, toward the fortress of Karak or Shobak, built between 1110 and 1213 AD by the Templars during the Crusades and later taken by Saladin. Departure for Petra. Dinner and overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

PETRA (HOTELS 5-20 KM AWAY)

Breakfast. Classic full-day visit to the Nabataean city of Petra, one of the settings of "Indiana Jones". Petra, one of the seven wonders of the world, was carved into rose-colored rock more than 2000 years ago. Arrival at the entrance of the canyon (Siq). From there, continuation to the impressive monumental complex of the Treasury (El Khazneh). Visit to the theater, the royal tombs, the Byzantine church and the Colonnaded Street. (Climb to the monastery or the high place of sacrifice at the clients' own expense, without a guide). Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

PETRA-LITTLE PETRA-WADI RUM-AQABA-AMMAN (595 KM)

Breakfast. Departure for Little Petra, to visit the caravan stop of the Nabataeans before entering the main city, a trading city for silk and spices. Then departure for the Wadi Rum desert, one of the settings of the films Lawrence of Arabia, "The Martian", with Matt Damon, and Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker, and one of the most spectacular environments in the Middle East. It is a red-sand desert, from which granite mountains and peaks in golden and reddish tones rise, with different patterns carved into the red rock. Classic 4x4 vehicle ride through the landscapes, of about 2 hours. Departure for the city of Aqaba, for a panoramic visit with free time in the city and/or on the beach. (Beach entrance not included, paid directly by the client. The beaches of Aqaba are private, and there are few public beaches with basic services). Departure by road to Amman. Dinner and overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

AMMAN (40 KM)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport. End of services.
