- Cog railway to the Gornergrat viewpoint, in Zermatt, with a view of the Matterhorn
- Glacier Express from Zermatt to Chur, over the Oberalp Pass, on a panoramic train

Day by day

1

DAY 1

ZURICH

Arrival in Zurich, transfer to the hotel and overnight stay. The guide will be at the hotel from 7 pm.

2

DAY 2

ZURICH

Breakfast and city visit, highlighting the historic center, the cathedral, the old town hall and the St. Martin's Gate. We continue through the commercial and financial center, Bahnhofstrasse, Fraumünster Church, the Limmatquai and the University district. Then we discover the world of chocolate in a house dedicated to it, where we learn about its long history and enjoy a tasting. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

ZURICH - LUCERNE - BERN

Breakfast and departure for Lucerne, a medieval city on the shores of Lake Lucerne. One of the attractions is the famous Chapel Bridge, a covered wooden bridge built in 1333 and decorated with several paintings. Then we go to the village of Engelberg and ride the world's first rotating cable car to the top of Mount Titlis, at 3,020 m, where a panoramic mountain view awaits. In the afternoon, continuation to Bern, the capital of Switzerland, one of the best-preserved medieval cities in Europe. Overnight stay.

4

DAY 4

BERN - GRUYÈRES - GENEVA

Breakfast. Panoramic visit of Bern, highlighting the Clock Tower and the 15th-century St. Vincent Cathedral. Then departure for Gruyères, a charming town known for the cheese of the same name, one of the most appreciated in Switzerland. Walk through the town and continuation to Geneva. Arrival and overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

GENEVA

Breakfast and city visit, walking along the Promenade du Lac and its English Garden, home to the famous Flower Clock, a symbol of the importance of watchmaking in the city. Geneva is the birthplace of illustrious figures such as Calvin, Rousseau, Voltaire and Henri Dunant, founder of the Red Cross. Its emblem is the Jet d'Eau, the tallest water fountain in the world, at 140 meters. We pass through the historic center, home to the famous Calvinist St. Pierre Cathedral, where John Calvin preached. We visit the Parc des Bastions and the Reformation Wall, a tribute to the founders of the Calvinist Reformation. For watchmaking enthusiasts, the city offers a route past the windows of the main Swiss brands. Free afternoon and overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

GENEVA - MONTREUX - ZERMATT

Breakfast and departure for Montreux, a picturesque town between the lake, the mountains and the vineyards of the Montreux Riviera. Short visit of the town and a tour inside the famous Chillon Castle, on a rocky promontory on the shores of Lake Geneva. This walled castle is the most visited historic building in Switzerland and, for almost four centuries, was the residence and customs house of the Counts of Savoy. Continuation to Zermatt, a charming car-free village with wooden houses and farms decorated with flowers. At the foot of the Matterhorn, Zermatt is a world-renowned mountain destination. Overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

ZERMATT

Breakfast and a cog railway ride up to the Gornergrat viewpoint, at 3,089 meters. From there you get one of the best views of the Matterhorn, the pyramid-shaped mountain that inspired the logo of a famous Swiss chocolate. Gornergrat also offers views of 29 peaks above 4,000 meters, including Monte Dufour, the highest point in Switzerland, and the Gorner Glacier, the third largest in the Alps. Return by train to Zermatt and overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

ZERMATT - GLACIER EXPRESS - ZURICH

Breakfast and boarding of the Glacier Express, one of the most iconic panoramic trains in Switzerland, known as the "slowest express train in the world". Its route links Zermatt to St. Moritz, crossing alpine landscapes. On this trip, we take the Zermatt to Chur stretch, about 5 hours and 30 minutes, through valleys, mountains and spectacular bridges. The train follows the course of the Rhône river, passes through Brig and goes to the Oberalp Pass, the highest point of the route, at 2,033 meters above sea level. From the Oberalp Pass, the train starts to descend to Chur, the oldest city in Switzerland. Disembark and continue the journey on our coach to Zurich. Overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

ZURICH

Breakfast and transfer to the airport. End of our services.
