About the trip

10 days through Denmark, Norway and Sweden, from Copenhagen to Stockholm, with a Spanish-speaking tour leader and daily breakfast. The itinerary includes an overnight cruise to Stavanger, panoramic visits to five cities and the Hallingdal valley.

What you will experience

- Copenhagen with Nyhavn, Amalienborg Palace and the Little Mermaid
- Aarhus and its cathedral, with an overnight cruise from Hirtshals to Stavanger with dinner on board
- Historic center of Stavanger, with the option of a Lysefjord cruise and a hike up Preikestolen
- Bergen with the fish market and the Hanseatic district, a UNESCO site
- Flåm, on the shores of the Dream Fjord, with the option of the Flåmsbana train and a ferry ride
- Oslo with Frogner Park and the Vigeland sculptures, and Stockholm's Gamla Stan

Day by day

1

DAY 1

COPENHAGEN

Welcome to Copenhagen, the capital and most populous city of Denmark. Transfer to the hotel on your own. Hotel check-in is available from 15:00. The history of Copenhagen goes back to about the year 800, when it grew up around a small fishing village. It has been the capital since 1300. Overnight stay.

2

DAY 2

COPENHAGEN-AARHUS (190 KM)

Breakfast. Panoramic tour of the capital of Denmark, with its old architecture and the Nyhavn district and harbor. In this thousand-year-old city, historic charm comes together with everything expected of a modern metropolis: theaters, museums, restaurants, shops. Other points of interest on the way are Amalienborg Palace, residence of the Danish royal family, Christiansborg Palace, home of the Danish Parliament, the National Museum of History and the stock exchange building, among others. To end the tour, the famous Little Mermaid cannot be missed. Departure for Aarhus, with a ferry crossing at Odden. Overnight stay.

3

DAY 3

AARHUS-HIRTSHALS-OVERNIGHT CRUISE (185 KM)

Breakfast. In the morning, panoramic tour of Aarhus, the second most populous city in Denmark. Its strategic location made it an important Viking town and, later, a prosperous commercial center. Stop at the Romanesque-Gothic cathedral. Free time to explore the city on your own. In the afternoon, we head to northern Denmark as far as Hirtshals, where we board an overnight cruise to Norway. Dinner and overnight stay on board.

4

DAY 4

STAVANGER

Breakfast on board and disembarkation. Panoramic tour of the charming historic center of Stavanger. Rest of the day free. We recommend one of the two optional activities: the Lysefjord Cruise, which gets close enough to one of the fjord's waterfalls to feel the water and see Pulpit Rock, rising above all the other impressive landscapes; or the Lysefjord Cruise plus the hike up Preikestolen (Pulpit Rock). Overnight stay.

5

DAY 5

STAVANGER-BERGEN (210 KM) (FERRY)

Breakfast. If there is enough time, we stop at Sverd i fjell, the monument of the three swords of Stavanger, an imposing symbol of unity and peace, raised where King Harald managed to unify Norway. Ferry from Mortavika to Årsvågen and from Sandvikvåg to Halhjem. Arrival in Bergen and free time for lunch. In the afternoon, panoramic visit of the city to see the most emblematic places, including the famous fish market and the Hanseatic quarter, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Overnight stay.

6

DAY 6

BERGEN-VOSS-FLÅM-GEILO/GOL (305 KM)

Breakfast. Departure for the Voss valley, a large lakeside holiday center, until we reach Flåm. You can take a complete optional excursion, booked in advance, that includes the Flåmsbana, a spectacular train ride that climbs almost 900 meters with incredible views of the fjord, and a ferry ride on the Dream Fjord. For passengers who do not take the optional excursion, the route is made by coach, on the road from Voss to Flåm. Time in Flåm will be about 4 hours, to enjoy this picturesque and lively village, on the shores of the Dream Fjord and surrounded by nature. Then we continue to the accommodation in the Hallingdal valley, in the heart of Norway, an area that combines rural tradition, typical Nordic charm and an Alpine atmosphere. Dinner and overnight stay.

7

DAY 7

GEILO/GOL-OSLO (305 KM)

Breakfast. We continue by road to discover Norwegian nature through the Hallingdal valley, along Lake Tyrifjord, and reach the capital of Norway. Panoramic visit of Oslo, including Frogner Park with the Vigeland sculpture complex, passing the City Hall, the Royal Palace and the modern Opera House. Rest of the day free. Overnight stay.

8

DAY 8

OSLO-KARLSTAD (220 KM)

Breakfast. Free morning in the capital of Norway to enjoy the atmosphere. Free time for lunch. In the afternoon, departure for Sweden. Arrival in Karlstad, located on the delta formed by two of Sweden's great natural waterways: the Klara River and the impressive Lake Vänern. Short walk with the tour leader through the center of Karlstad: the Almen district, with its wooden houses, the statues of Duke Karl and Eva Lisa Holtz, and Stora Torget, the main square, which brings together all the life of the city, and the cathedral. Overnight stay.

9

DAY 9

KARLSTAD-STOCKHOLM (305 KM)

Breakfast. Departure eastward until we reach the Swedish capital, built on 14 islands. Surrounded by Lake Mälaren and the Baltic Sea, with its great public buildings, palaces, rich cultural history and museums, it tells a story of 700 years. We will make a panoramic visit of the city, including the historic center, or "Gamla Stan", with its tangle of small squares and cobblestone lanes, and we will see the exterior of the Royal Palace, the Cathedral and the Parliament. Overnight stay.

10

DAY 10

STOCKHOLM

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport on your own. End of services.
