ROME

Breakfast. The historic center of Rome was made for unhurried walks, with endless cobbled streets and picturesque squares surrounded by lively cafés. Baroque churches, fountains and palaces built during the Renaissance are scattered everywhere. At the Trevi Fountain, according to legend, you must throw one coin into the fountain to return to Rome, two coins to fall in love with an Italian and a third to marry one! Then walk to the Column of Marcus Aurelius and on to the Palazzo di Montecitorio, an elegant palace designed by Bernini, now used as a parliament building. We continue with the Pantheon of Rome, whose interior is the best preserved in the city and holds several tombs of illustrious Italians, such as the Renaissance genius Raphael. From Piazza della Rotonda, we go on to Piazza Navona to admire Bernini's splendid fountains. Free time. In the afternoon, visit to the Vatican Museums (skip the line), the second-largest art museum in size and the fifth most visited in the world, home to the famous Sistine Chapel and the Raphael Rooms. You can explore on your own some of the most famous masterpieces in the world, created by Michelangelo, Raphael, Caravaggio, Leonardo da Vinci and many others. Accommodation.

DAY 4

SAN GIOVANNI ROTONDO

Accommodation and breakfast. Free day to visit San Giovanni Rotondo on your own, the town where Padre Pio lived from 1916 until the day of his death, on September 23, 1968. Here, on August 5, 1918, Padre Pio received the “transverberation” from Jesus. On the following September 20, he received once again the stigmata of the Passion and the crucifixion of Jesus. Padre Pio received from God mystical phenomena such as bilocation and the mysterious perfume that came from his person. He often knew the hearts of people, and many prophecies were fulfilled. He performed many miracles, also far from San Giovanni Rotondo. Around Padre Pio a great spiritual movement was born, the “Prayer Groups”, and the friar also thought of the sick. Thus arose the great project of the “Casa Sollievo della Sofferenza” (Home for the Relief of Suffering), a majestic and modern hospital built near the convent of San Giovanni Rotondo. It would become one of the largest hospitals in Europe. The fame of Padre Pio's holiness reached the whole world. But there were also many physical and moral sufferings. He accepted everything with a pleasant spirit, surrendering to the will of God. Men of faith, men without faith, freethinkers, all were charmed by his great spiritual personality. Many came to believe in God. On May 2, 1999, Pope John Paul II declared him Blessed. In San Giovanni Rotondo, you can visit the grotto of Santa Maria delle Grazie, where the body of Padre Pio was displayed until September 2009.
