About the trip

Nine days through Delhi, Jaipur, Agra and Varanasi, with a Spanish-speaking tour leader on days 2 to 6 and seven dinners. The itinerary includes Amber Fort with an elephant ride, the Taj Mahal, the train to Varanasi and a boat ride on the Ganges at dawn.

What you will experience

- Old Delhi with the Red Fort, Chandni Chowk and Jama Masjid, and the Qutub Minar in New Delhi
- Elephant ride up to Amber Fort, the observatory and the Maharaja's Palace, in Jaipur
- Abhaneri stepwell and Fatehpur Sikri, on the way to Agra
- Taj Mahal and Agra Fort
- Train from Agra to Varanasi and the Aarti ceremony on the banks of the Ganges
- Boat ride on the Ganges at daybreak, past the ghats, and an excursion to Sarnath

Day by day

1

DAY 1

DELHI

Arrival in Delhi. Our representative meets passengers outside Gate 5, holding a sign with their name. Welcome and transfer to the hotel. Check-in from 2 pm. Overnight. Delhi, the modern capital of India, is also a very old city, with origins lost in legend. Hundreds of monuments adorn it, with a history that spans millennia. From here, many Hindu and Muslim dynasties, among them the Mughals, ruled India. At least 7 successive cities existed here before the arrival of the British, who created, through Sir Edwin Lutyens, the capital they dreamed of.

2

DAY 2

DELHI

Breakfast. The visit begins with a photo stop at the Red Fort. Nearby is Chandni Chowk, once an imperial avenue where Shah Jahan liked to ride his horse. From there, the route passes through the lanes of Old Delhi and the Jama Masjid mosque, one of the largest in India, built by the Mughal emperor Shah Jahan in the 17th century. Next, a visit to Gandhi's tomb and a drive through New Delhi to see India Gate, the Presidential Palace and Parliament. Visit to a Sikh temple, with 10 minutes seated to watch the visitors and hear the prayer. After lunch, a visit to New Delhi shows the Qutab Minar (12th century), slender and with its shaft carved entirely by hand. Nearby stands the Iron Pillar, which has survived 1500 years of history without shaking and has not even rusted. Return to the hotel. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

3

DELHI / JAIPUR (256 KM)

Breakfast. Departure for Jaipur, the pink city of Rajasthan. Jaipur is one of the most picturesque cities in the world. It was built according to the canons of the Shilpa Shastra, the ancient Hindu treatise on architecture. Divided into seven rectangular sectors, with well-laid streets and right angles, its layout is a marvel of 18th-century urban planning, when not even Europe had a similar system. Surrounded by steep hills on three of its cardinal points, the city is protected by a powerful fortified wall with seven gates. In the afternoon, a panoramic visit of the city, with an orientation tour and a view of Albert Hall (a palace built by the maharaja of Jaipur to mark the visit of King George of England, now a museum). Next, a visit to the Birla Temple, of the Hindu religion. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

4

DAY 4

JAIPUR / AMBER FORT / JAIPUR

Breakfast. In the morning, departure to visit Amber Fort, the former capital of the state until 1728. The climb to the top of the hill where the fort stands is made on elephant back. Continuation with the panoramic visit of Jaipur (named after the maharaja Jai Singh, a prince and astronomer, who designed and founded the city in 1727). Visit to the astronomical observatory and the Maharaja's Palace, the former royal residence and now a museum of manuscripts, Rajput and Mughal paintings and weapons. Drive through the residential and shopping areas of the "pink city", past the Hawa Mahal (Palace of Winds), one of the best-known monuments of Jaipur. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

5

DAY 5

JAIPUR / ABHANERI / FATEHPUR SIKRI / AGRA (236 KM)

Breakfast. On the way, a visit to the Abhaneri stepwell, in the village of Abhaneri, near Jaipur, in the state of Rajasthan. It stands opposite the Harshat Mata temple and is one of the largest and deepest in India. It was built in the 9th century and has 3300 steps, 13 levels and a depth of 100 feet, and it was rebuilt in the 10th century. Continuation to Fatehpur Sikri, the dead city, built by the emperor Akbar in 1569 and abandoned for lack of a water supply. The buildings of the city are remarkably well preserved, especially the Jama Masjid mosque, the tomb of Salim Chisti, the Panch Mahal and other sites. Arrival in Agra. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

6

DAY 6

AGRA

Breakfast. Visit to one of the most important monuments in the world, the Taj Mahal, a song to love built by the emperor Shah Jahan in 1630 as the mausoleum of his queen, Mumtaz Mahal. This architectural marvel, of harmonious proportions, was built entirely in white marble. Artisans from Persia, the Ottoman Empire, France and Italy took 17 years to complete it, helped by 20,000 workers. (The Taj Mahal closes on Fridays, a Muslim holy day.) Next, a visit to the Agra Fort, in the heart of the city. It reflects Indian architecture under three Mughal emperors: Akbar, Jehangir and Shah Jahan. The complex holds interesting structures, such as the Jehangiri Mahal, the Anguri Bagh, the Khas Mahal and the Moti Masjid mosque. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

7

DAY 7

AGRA / VARANASI (TRAIN)

Breakfast. At 5:00, transfer to the train station to board for Varanasi. The train journey is part of the experience. Arrival and transfer to the hotel. In the afternoon, a visit to the Bharat Mata temple, with its large marble relief of India, and then to the Ganges River, to watch the evening "Aarti" ceremony. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

8

DAY 8

VARANASI

At daybreak, a boat ride on the sacred Ganges River to see the "Ghats", the stairways used for ritual bathing, and the cremation sites. Watching the faithful bathe and worship the river at the Ghats is one of the most striking experiences a traveler can have in India. Millions of pilgrims come to purify themselves in the river's waters, attend ancient rites, consult astrologers and cast out negative karma. Walk through the lanes of the old city to see how the Hindu religion is present in people's daily lives. Pass by the Durga temple, the Tulsi Manas Mandir and the Banaras Hindu University. Return to the hotel and breakfast. Excursion to Sarnath, the buried Buddhist city, where Buddha gave his first sermon. Sarnath was a renowned center of learning from the 6th century BC to the 12th century AD. Visit to the ruins, the Stupa, the Buddhist Temple and the Museum. Dinner and overnight.

Meals included: breakfast and dinner

9

DAY 9

VARANASI / DELHI (FLIGHT)

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport to board a scheduled flight to Delhi. Arrival in Delhi for the connection to the return flight. End of services.

Meals included: breakfast
